SANTIAGO CITY TOUR "SCL"

Through our tour we will get to know Santiago, a cosmopolitan city that perfectly blends the old with the modern.

Our journey begins at the Government Palace, where we will be able to see the traditional changing of the guard. Continue with the visit to key places to learn about and understand the origin of the city and a fundamental part of Chile's history.

Cerro Santa Lucía, Plaza de Armas, the Cathedral, the Post Office and the Municipality of Santiago are must-see spots in the capital of Chile.

Afterwards, we'll head to the traditional Bellavista neighborhood. Here we'll find a wide variety of restaurants where we can have lunch.

Then we will visit San Cristóbal Hill (optional), the largest urban park in Latin America, from where we can appreciate Santiago while riding the cable car.

Finally, we will end the walk in Bicentennial Park to see the beautiful black-necked swans that live there.

VIÑA DEL MAR, VALPARAÍSO AND WINES

The tour begins in Viña del Mar, the Garden City, which enchants visitors with its architecture, streets, palaces, casino, and Quinta Vergara. We'll visit the Flower Clock and the Fonck Museum to see an original moai from Easter Island. We'll travel along the coast to reach Valparaíso, a city declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 2003 and home to the Chilean Congress.

It's a captivating city with picturesque funiculars, colorful neighborhoods, and unique and unforgettable landscapes. We'll go to Bellavista Hill to visit La Sebastiana (the house museum of the great Chilean poet Pablo Neruda), the Cerro Alegre viewpoints, and the Paseo 21 de Mayo.

Finally, we will visit Sotomayor Square and the port, where we can optionally sail around Valparaíso Bay.

*This tour can be combined with a visit to a vineyard in Casablanca.
